Kailana

OXTON · WIRRAL

A voucher for two nights at a self contained studio accommodation, situated in the unique setting of Mere Hall on the Wirral peninsula***

'Kailana' is a self contained lodge situated in the unique secluded quiet setting of Mere Hall. The self contained accommodation is suitable for two people, and provides a living/sleeping area, a galley kitchen with cooking facilities, fridge and washing machine. There is also an ensuite toilet and shower. Wi-fi access and a TV. Transport is essential and parking is available.

The lodge is located close to the picturesque conservation village of Oxton and set in the heart of the Wirral peninsular with a Michelin 4 Star restaurant 'Fraiche', local bars and restaurants. It is conveniently located for Birkenhead, Liverpool, Chester with easy access to North Wales and is just minutes from the M53 motorway.

Mere Hall was the home of the Liverpool lawyer Sir John Gray Hill who in 1882 commissioned architect Edmund Kirby to design the Hall. The Hall is now divided into separate dwellings with terraced gardens close to the house, providing gardens for residents. Stone steps lead down to the lower garden and beyond, there is a belt of woodland.
